

THE MAJESTIC MALACCA

TREASURES FROM A KRISTANG KITCHEN - DINNER AT THE MANSION

With its original Straits Settlement windows overlooking the Malacca River and Kampung Morten, The Mansion offers a variety of dishes stemming from a unique and rare Malaccan cultural heritage known as Kristang.

Rooted in a 500-year-old legacy, Kristang cuisine is influenced by a harmonious mix of culinary styles. There is no better way to pique your curiosity about Malacca than with an authentic Kristang dinner, an ode to Malacca's cosmopolitan past. The beauty of Kristang cooking lies in its simplicity, emphasising high-quality and the freshest ingredients.

"In Kristang we say konsevah tradisang, which translates to conserving traditions."

MALACCA SUNSET STREET FOOD TRAIL

Immerse yourself in the culture of the city through this exclusive Sunset Street Food Trail. Experience the street food of Malacca and follow in the footsteps of the locals for a lively neighbourhood night out. Eat like a local, taste delicious bites, and hear personal stories from our food guide.

- 6.00pm Take a short walk to Capitol Seafood Longkang Siham, located along Jalan Bunga Raya which is 5 minutes away from The Majestic Malacca. This back-alley spot is famous for its fresh seafood, where patrons sit on tiny stools along long steel tables.
- 7.15pm Stroll through the Red Square, Malacca's most famous night time landmark. The square is surrounded by red-painted buildings, the most prominent being Stadthuys, built between the 1660s and 1700s, featuring large windows and wrought iron hedges. At the center stands the Queen Victoria Fountain, a major highlight built in 1901 to commemorate Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee.
- 8.00pm Head to Bunga Raya Fried Oyster, a culinary treasure within the Medan Makan Boon Leong hawker centre. Celebrated as one of the world's best fried oyster preparations, this dish has a storied history and a legion of devoted fans.
- 8.45pm Return to The Majestic Malacca for a nightcap at the Mansion Bar
